

Low back pain practice guideline

Approved by Clinical Quality Improvement Committee: 8/2014

Acute low back pain with radiculopathy

Acute low back pain without radiculopathy

Low back pain practice guideline expert panel participants

Johnson Memorial Hospital

Michael Erdil, M.D., Consultant
Occupational Medicine Specialist, Board Certified

Reliant Medical Group

Thomas Kesman, M.D., Orthopedic Surgery

UMass Memorial Health Care

Ronald Adler, M.D., Family Medicine, Board Certified
Faren Williams, M.D., Physical Medicine & Rehab, Board Certified

Worcester Neurosurgery

Arno Sungarian, M.D., Neurosurgery, Board Certified
Gerald McGillicuddy, M.D., Neurosurgery, Board Certified

Harrington Hospital

William Dunn, D.O., Internal Medicine, Board Certified

Fallon Health

Matthew Collins, M.D, Family Practice, Board Certified
Param Singh, M.D, Internal Medicine
Hollis Coblenz, D.O., Family Practice, AOA Board Certified

References

1. Katz, S., Hawley, S., The value of sharing treatment decision making with patients. JAMA. 2013. Oct; 310(15):1559-60.
2. Youm, J., Chenok, K. et al., The emerging case for shared decision making in orthopaedics. JBJS. 2012. Oct; 94A(20):1906-12
3. Lee, E., Emanuel, E. Shared decision making to improve care and reduce costs. NEJM. 2013. Jan; 368(1):6-8